{ As medical care transitions, I think it's really important mixing pot, the melting pot of ideas, that's what I really enjoy about this and I hope to be here for years in the future. }

— DR. BILL RIVARD, MATRIX PROVIDERS

{ It's been an excellent experience. I think most pointedly is being together with peers, and being collaborative and daunting issues we have facing us in workforce. Historically we have been at a place where we have been able to come together and network and really problem solve and we are running at a faster pace and don't have that opportunity. }

— JANE RANKIN, PEACEHEALTH
